Our first tour stop will take us to the exciting cultures of the Austro-Hungarian Empire. Bartok's Hungarian Sketches will open the program after which we will pay tribute to Halloween with Dvorak's exciting (and scary!) Noon Witch. Dancers take the stage to the music by Bartok, Janacek, and Dvorak. The program concludes with Dvorak's Symphony No. 8.

Holidays from Around the World

Friday, December 9, 2011 - 8 pm

Our next destination takes us on a special celebrity guided tour treating us to formidable music of the Russian Masters. First we pay homage to Eastern Orthodox roots with Rimsky-Korsakov's Russian Easter Overture followed by Borodin's In the Steppes of Central Asia. The program also boasts Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 4 and the Piano Concerto No. 1 with the Philharmonic's own Walter Morales on piano.
